Dear Mr. Bland:

Greetings from Focus on the Family, and thank you for writing to Dr. Dobson. Be assured that your affirming words regarding his influence as a Christian leader are genuinely appreciated. Because Dr. Dobson will be away from the office until sometime in January, it is my privilege to respond to your letter on his behalf.

We are pleased that you took the time to tell us about your research on the tragic events of September 11, 2001. It's obvious that the information you've heard and read has weighed heavily on your mind, and you believe that leaders within the Christian church should help you publicize your concerns. While your determination to pursue truth and justice is commendable, we need to let you know that Dr. Dobson will not be able to accept your invitation to participate in this endeavor. The issues you've raised fall outside the realm of his expertise and the scope of Focus on the Family's ministry. We hope you understand.

Again, thank you for writing, Mr. Bland. May God bless and guide you as you commit all of your efforts to Him.

Sincerely,

Michael Krider
